Lost In a Wild Sea.

New York and New Jersey Visited by a Cyclone.

Great Damage in Cities.—Heaviest Rainfall on Record.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—A cyclone swept over this part of the Atlantic coast last night and this morning, and left marks over the whole region around New York. The rainfall was 3.28 inches during twelve hours, the heaviest ever reached. The wind reached a maximum of forty miles an hour at 3 o'clock this morning. The steamships and other large vessels at anchor sought safety outside. Many of these, as well as the steamships due today, are now cruising outside waiting for the wind to subside. Through the dragging of anchors more than fifty cables of the Western Union telegraph company are now lying useless at the bottom of North river.

The ravages of the storm were no less severe on land. Trees were overturned, plate glass windows were shattered and shutters were torn from houses. Wire connection with Boston and New Haven was entirely broken. Of the seventy-five wires to Washington only twelve are standing, but the connection with Philadelphia is in good condition. All the wires on Long island were badly affected.

The sea reached inland farthest at Brighton Beach. The waves ran around the music pavilion, and the wide plaza was like a deep-laden ship's deck washed. The first floor of the hotel was soaked with salt water. Nearly two hundred feet of trestle of the Marine railway were carried away. The watchman of the trestle had his shanty washed away and he was rescued by the first guard.

The storm in Brooklyn caused great damage. Nearly every street in the city is covered with debris from trees. Ten houses were unroofed.

During the storm a policeman found the body of a dead man in a peddler's wagon. The wagon was filled with water and the man was floating around.

In New Jersey the storm was severely felt. The details are meager on account of the prostration of the wires.

A summary this morning shows 150 elm trees, averaging ten inches in diameter, blown down in Rahway.

At Williams a seaman's family were awakened by the crashing through the roof of a large treee. It cut the second story, stopping just a foot from a bed.

At Elizabethport fully 100 trees were blown down. The streets at Elizabethport were under water to the depth of two and three feet.

From the coast news is particularly vague. The surf was high during the fury of the gale, and the stories from the sea are yet to be told.

Great Loss of Life.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—The fishing schooners Empire State with a crew of ten men and the Ella M. Johnson with a crew of eight men went down about midnight last night off Manasquan on the Jersey coast and all on board were lost.

Capt. Berry and Mate Francis of the schooner Chocora were swept overboard and lost.

The steamer Eggleston Abbey was forced to put in here for repairs this afternoon. Eighteen plates, forward and amidships, were stove in and the decks were generally damaged. Her captain reports that on Aug. 22 he discovered some wreckage floating in the water and on bearing down toward it made out a man clinging to part of a broken boat and an empty barrel. He stopped the steamer and sent a boat to pick him up. The man was quite exhausted when taken aboard. He proved to be one of the crew of the fishing schooner Mary Lizzie of Portland, Me., which foundered at 9 a. m. Aug. 21. His name is George H. Upton. He reported that the rest of the crew, six in number, one of whom was his brother, perished, he having seen them go down after the schooner sank. The Mary Lizzie was struck by a heavy squall which hove her down on her beam ends, when the wind shifted and a heavy sea struck her and she sank in five minutes.

PENNSYLVANIA TO THE FRONT.

Thirty Thousand People Assemble to Hear Alliance Doctrine.

FARMERS BIG DAY.

MT. GRETNA, Pa., Aug. 24.—This was a big day at the national encampment of the Farmers' Alliance. Owing to the rain this morning's program was abandoned, but there was an outpouring of people this afternoon. Conservative estimates placed the attendance for the day at over 30,000, and 2000 people assembled in the auditorium of the Pennsylvania Chautauqua to hear Mrs. Lease make a special address. Col. J. H. McDowell of Tennessee followed with a short address.

Suicided in a Well.

HONEY GROVE, Fannin Co., Tex., Aug. 25.—Mrs. Birdsall, wife of G. Birdswall, a farmer living eight miles north of here, committed suicide this morning about 1 o'clock by jumping in a cistern. Mrs. Birdsall was about 61 years old and has been in feeble health several months, and it has been feared that her mind was affected. Last night about 12 o'clock, after retiring, Mrs. Birdsall awoke and spoke a few words to her husband. He fell asleep, woke again in a little while and finding that his wife was absent instituted search for her, arousing the boys to assist him. After looking in all places where they thought she might be found, one of the boys remembered that sometime since, while he was drawing water from the cistern, his mother remarked that this would be the place where she would end her life when she became a burden to them, and he went to the cistern and looking in saw his mother's lifeless body floating on the water.

WASH JONES TALKS.

He Gives His Views on Present Finances. Outlines What They Should Be.

BASTOP, Tex., Aug. 23.—The reporter called on Colonel Wash Jones and interviewed him on the financial question with the following result:

"Do you believe in bimetallism?"

"If we must have a metallic basis the broader the better.

"If nothing can be money but gold and silver, let us have both."

"Would our commercial relations be benefited by bimetallism?"

"Money is territorial, each nation making its own. Yet gold and silver are commodities, affected by demand and supply, and any legislation increasing the demand increases the value. The demand for gold and silver as money material gives to them their principal value. So that our commercial relations might be seriously affected by monetary legislation. Bimetallism would increase the value of silver and diminish the value of gold."

"What ratio do you favor?"

"The demonetization of silver has increased the value of gold and equity requires that the quantum in the gold dollar be diminished so as to conform to the Bland dollar. In other words, if we must have bimetallism the metal cheapening should always be the standard, increasing the demand for it and diminishing the demand for the other, and thus by the inexorable law of demand and supply maintain the wonted parity."

"What has caused the present financial stringency and how can it be alleviated?"

"The election of a president upon an automatic platform proposing to retire all money whose material is not equal in wealth to its monetary value. The only remedy is the overthrow of Cleveland democracy."

"How can the parity between the two metals be maintained?"

"As demand and supply will always fluctuate the only way to maintain parity is the free and unlimited coinage of both metals, so that the metal tending to cheapen would be sustained in value by increase in coinage."

"What would be the effect of the unconditional repeal of the Sherman act?"

"The unconditional repeal of the Sherman act would be a victory for the gold bugs, and the victors would shout themselves hoarse to restore the cofidence which their politics and croakings have impaired, and, as a consequence, a temporary flush in money matters would follow."

"What is meant by the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and what would be the effect of such a policy upon American industries?"

"Free and unlimited coinage, in plain English. It means that those who want may have as much or as little bullion coined as suits their interests, taking to themselves as profit the difference between the market and money value of the metal coined. The free and unlimited coinage of silver would enrich the silver owners at the risk and expense of the American taxpayers."

"What would be the correct financial policy for congress to adopt?"

"The correct financial policy for congress to adopt is to abolish the internal revenue, supplying its place with United States legal tender bills—in other words, paper money, and to guard against panics and for other reasons, organize a postal system that will gradually retire banks."

He—Don't you think you could love me a little if you knew that I would die for you?

She—Possibly, if you will give proof satisfactory to a coroner's jury.—Boston Globe.

CLEVELAND.

Cold as a mountain summit, bleak and bare,
Shining beneath its many wintered snows,
That round its base a fatal shadow throws
On those who would approach but perish there—
Such is the freezing, unresponsive air
Of him whom millions of our freemen thought
Worthy all honors, who but late was caught
Up in flaming chariots whose glare
Lit all the land from sea to sea; but now
This man, so honored, would unmoved behold
The empire of the South and West laid low,
A sacrifice unto his god of gold!
But on the Sinai of the people's might
Are thunders, silent yet, which if unrolled
Will shake the loftiest masters from their height,
And sound the living law of justice and of right.

Negro Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—A number of negro democrats met here to day in response to a call. A letter was read from Senator Brice, of Ohio, in which he expressed a hope that the conference may promote the enterprise of bringing negro democrats into close association. The following officers were elected: President, Robert G. Steele, of Pennsylvania; vice-president, Chas. H. Smith, of West Virginia; secretary, John G. Bell Jr., of Georgia; treasurer, Geo. T. Downing, of Rhode Island.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Tragic and Startling Death of Jesse Carpenter at Decatur.

DECATUR, Wise Co., Tex., Aug. 25.—About 5 o'clock this morning the startling and sad news was spread through town that Jesse Carpenter, one of Decatur's business men and one of the oldest citizens of Wise county, has been suddenly killed by a stroke of lightning from the thunder cloud which passed over town about 3:30 this morning. Mr. Carpenter had gone up the Fort Worth and Denver road yesterday to meet a car load of horses which were being shipped to him from Oregon. The train came down late last night, and Mr Carpenter, with several others, were at the freight depot unloading the horses when the cloud, accompanied by a shower of rain, came up. About the time the shower began some of the party were slightly shocked by lightning. It was very dark, and they took shelter in one of the cars. After some time Mr. Carpenter was missed, and had not been seen since they quit work, but was supposed to have gone to the depot, near by, or to his home, about 150 yards off.

After the shower Mr. Stewart went to the depot in search of him, sent a boy to the house to see if he was there. Not finding him, they became alarmed, and, procuring a lantern, returned to where they left off work and were horrified to find his lifeless body there.

The stroke had been so sudden and so effective that he sunk, without a word and without a struggle, lifeless to the ground. His hands were in his pockets when found, and, though having been in the rain fully an hour and a half, he was still warm, as if life had just departed. There was no marks on his body. His hat was torn and his collar broken open and tie disarranged. His shoes were literally torn to pieces and the soles loosened.

Populist Meeting.

TYLER, Smith Co., Tex., Aug. 25.—There was a populist pic nic and speaking seven miles northeast of this city yesterday. The crowd was fair-sized and enthusiastic. Mr. R. H. C. Butler of this city and others spoke.

The single eyeglass is worn by the dude. The theory is that he can see more with one eye than he can comprehend.

By noticing the date just opposite your name on the margin of THE DEMOCRAT you can tell just how long you owe for it. Those who are in arrears will please pay us for we are needing the amount due us at once to settle our indebtness. DON'T FORGET IT.

EVEN democrats now admit that underconsumption is the cause of all our distress.

OLD HICKORY slumbers while his party becomes the champion of the national banking system.

IT would be well for our readers to file the vote on the silver question for future reference.

THE vote of the lower house on the final passage of the Wilson repeal bill will be in our next issue.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bi-metallism—Republican Platform.

We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or charge for mintage--Democratic platform.

A BIG fire in South Chicago last Thursday destroyed $1,000,000 worth of property and rendered 7,000 people homeless.

IF it was not for our good nature, we would brand the man who declares the great populist movement as not being sincere, A LIAR.

WE have read Congressman Bryan's speech on the silver question. It is, without doubt, unanswerable. Our antisilver friends should read it.

SOME gentlemen who burned their hats and shirts while celebrating Cleveland's election last fall are now sick and are burning Cleveland in effigy.

"ELECT GROVER and get $1.00 per bushel for your wheat." This was inscribed on many banners last fall. Fellow citizens, what is the price of your wheat?

THE man who revels amid palaces can never realize the condition of the great masses. His heart becomes as a stone and on to hell he glides at a 2:40 pace.

THE idiotic or careless citizen grovels in the darkness of his own selfishness or menial servitude, while the "calamity howler" climbs the watch tower of liberty and gives warning against the approaching storm of despotism.

ANTI silver advocates point to England as a gold basis country. Yes, and it is in England where labor grovels in the dust of despair. Your "honest" dollar has played sheol in that country.

THE "cowardly makeshift" of a republican congress, was repealed in the lower house of congress by a vote of 132 democrats and 103 republicans.

THE lower house of congress should pass a resolution, before it adjourns, to read like this: "It is the sense of this august body that three-fourths of the people of the United States are d—n fools." A resolution of this kind would seem to be consistent.

OUR opponents affect to be afraid of the world's supply of silver. Uuder a free coinage law, when the supply of silver becomes sufficient it can be repealed just as the Sherman law is being repealed.

CONFIDENCE has been completely restored. Clint Thompson, editor of the McKinney Gazette, was appointed treasurer of the North Texas Press Association. Turn her loose, Clint, and thus increase the circulating medium.

MONOMETALLISTS are afraid of England and other countries dumping their silver on America, but they persist in letting these foreign countries dump an unlimited amount of cussedness in the halls of the American congress.

THE Hogg men should lay aside prejudice and flee to the populist camp for protection. We like them for their bravery in fighting against the national democracy and its leader Grover Cleveland. Come with us brother Hoggites and we will thrash the Clark plutocracy of Texas.

OUR democratic friends howled last fall about negro equality. Now a negro democratic convention meets in Washington and Cleveland, together, with several other leaders of the G. O. P., bids them God speed. We are more convinced than ever that the victory last November was won by hypocracy and cussedness.

THE Christian ministry should find much in the financial condition of the masses to pray and talk about. If it refuses Jehovah himself should send a swift condemnation on it. "Millions are crying piteously for bread and the bond holders cry piteously for gold."

MERCHANTS, do you feel this panic? God bless you, never find fault again with the poor farmer who is bending his thinly clad form beneath the scorching rays of a Southern sun, vainly trying to secure enough products to pay his bill to you. If you fail to help fight his battles you should never complain.

WE hear some democrats say that Bailey and his eight other colleagues, in voting against the repeal of the Sherman law, disobeyed the Chicago platform, which denounced the "cowardly makeshift" and demanded its repeal. Mr. Bailey knew full well that the masses of his party expected a silver substitute and was not ready to discard a half loaf with nothing else in sight.

How to avoid Alum and Ammonia Baking Powders:

First, All powders offered at twenty-five cents or less a pound can safely be discarded as Alum, for a Pure Cream of Tartar Powder cannot be sold at such price.

Second, Avoid all brands labeled "Absolutely Pure," Chemical analysis, as revealed by the Scientific American report, proved that brands so labeled contained, in every instance, either Ammonia or Alum. The first aim of a dishonest manufacturer is to deceive by his label.

A Democratic House Turns its Back on the White Metal and Discriminates in Favor of Gold.

Silver Dick Bland, who has Grown Old and Gray in the Fight for Constitutional Money Stood Like a STONE WALL AGAINST REPRESENTATIVES OF WALL STREET AND ENGLAND.

There is gathered around the Capitol of this Nation a gang of Pirates who thundered successfully at the doors, until they have drawn this Government into the most preposterous acts of bad faith and legalized robbery, that ever oppressed a free nation since the dawn of history.—O. P. Morton.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The public galleries of the hall of the house of representatives were filled before 10 o'clock this morning, and many members were in their seats on the floor at that hour. The surrounding corridors and lobbies were also filled with a throng of people.

Mr. Bland acknowledged his probable defeat to-day in the following words: "The influences that have been brought to bear upon our men had their effect, and I should not be surprised to see the Wilson bill go through the senate some day soon with little or no friction."

The leaders of the house attracted an unusual amount of attention as they came upon the floor. Mr. Reed came in at 11:20. Gen. Tracy and Mr. Bland were busily engaged in conference with their lieutenants, preparing for the decisive count of the votes.

Lafe Pence, the enthusiastic populist from Colorado, earnestly assured Amos Cummings of New York that the end was not yet, despite the apparent defeat of the advocates of free silver.

After the reading of the journal Mr. Weaver of New York appeared at the bar of the house on the arm of his colleague, Gen. Tracy, and was sworn in by the speaker.

The resolution contained in the order of procedure on the silver question was reported by the clerk, providing for a vote first upon the free coinage of of silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1.

Representative Bailey of Texas asked if, in the event of all the amendments included in the order being defeated, it would be in order to propose an aditional amendment ger mane on the subject.

Speaker Crisp replied that as at present advised he would answer no, that the order provides exhaustively all that the house may consider, but when the time came to formally present the question the gentleman from Texas might be heard.

Representative McMillan of Tennssee desired to offer an amendment providing for free coinage of the product of the silver mines of the United States, but Mr. Bland objected even to having it read, saying that such a proposition was not free coinage at all.

The Wilson bill having been read Mr. Bland offered his first amendment, that of free coinage at the present ratio of 16 to 1, and it was defeated by a vote of yeas, 124, nays, 226, amid applause from the anti-silver men, who received one more majority than they expected.

Following is the detailed vote.

Not nearly as much interest was taken in the second vote, which was on the ratio of 17 to 1. The decisive vote on the 16 to 1 ratio seemed to dishearten the silver men and in place of the attention paid the first there was substituted listlessness, which spread through the hall. The vote resulted in the defeat of the amendment, yeas 100, nays 240.

On the vote of 17 to 1, besides the loss of the populist votes, the members of that party withholding their votes, there were several negative votes from those who voted in favor of a ratio of 16 to 1.

The 18 to 1 free coinage amendment was rejected, yeas 102, nays 239.

The 19 to 1 amendment was rejected, yeas 105, nays 237.

The 20 to 1 amendment was likewise rejected, yeas 119, nays 220.

The proposition to re-enact the Bland-Allison act, as a proviso to the repeal bill, received the strongest support, but even that was defeated by a majority of 77, the vote standing, yeas, 136, nays 213.

The vote was then taken upon the final passage of the Wilson bill and it was passed—yeas 240, nays 110.

Politics Paraphased

At a Picnic. Altoga Alliance Amply Amused.

For Fair Fighting and Friendly Flaying

COLLIN COUNTY CAN CUT 'ER.

The alliance at Altoga, nine miles east of McKinney, on Aug. 24th held a most enjoyable picnic, in a beautiful grove.

A large number of people assembled and listened to an able address by state lecturer, C. A. McMeans.

A magnificent dinner was spread, after which a joint discussion was had between Judge Edwards, republican, of Dallas, and W. E. Farmer, populist.

The democrats of McKinney and other places had been appealed to, in vain, for a speaker to hold up the Cleveland banner. But Judge Edwards proved himself equal to the task.

The Judge applauded Cleveland and the republicans. He flayed the Hoggites and expressed shame for the collusion of Clark and Cuney.

He said Cleveland was on the republican platform and all right—but the colossal and unmitigated ignorance of the democrats had long been painfully ruinous before the republicans, and now, the whole country was feeling their blighting influence.

He said Texas had suffered under their rule until the only remaining prosperous industries were train robbing and ballot box stuffing.

He was once a farmer under democratic rule but reformed, became a lawyer and was leading a better life. Would hold clothes for any party that would fight democracy.

He deplored the great accumulation of silver in the treasury—said there was 554 car loads of coin and twice that much bullion.

He said democrats formerly said the dollar must represent 100 cents in labor, now Mr. Hogg's kind wanted 51 cents in the dollar. Silver was so debased it could not be made to circulate.

He declared greenback the best money on the continent. The bank note was payable in greenback—silver note payable in silver—coin note payable in silver or gold.

He deeply deplored the ignorance, duplicity, high crimes and misdemeanors of democracy and said the only difference between a democrat and demijohn was—whisky in one could be gotten out but, when in the other it was gone forever.

He made frequent apology for using the expression "dont you know." He said "of course, you dont know. A democrat knows absolutely nothing."

In reply Mr. Farmer said—now brother democrat what do you say—Didn't we tell you last year that Cleveland was a republican of the most dangerous kind? That he would join the republicans in trying to enslave us under the money power?

Don't you want to crawl off and die? We told you the things and you hooted—we warned you against these traitors and you laughed—we prophesied these evils and ye stoned us with stale eggs!

Now hand me your rotten democracy and I will throw it away for you.

The difference between these two old parties is; one steals and the other hides the goods.

These gold tipped hypocrits say the country is prosperous beyond all precedent.

Every farmer here with a bank account hold up your hand—no hands up.

Thirty years ago our farmers owned three fourths of the property—now they own one-fourth and we carry nine million mortgages, billions of debt and, selling our product for less than it costs.

With thirty years more of this demo publican rule where would you be?

While millions are starving, the old school politicians tell us the trouble lies in over production and advise us to adopt better and cheaper methods of production.

Our only over production is in wool—wool pulled over our eyes.

There are 40,000 men in Texas to day who will work for 50 cents per day and board.

Cleveland has disgraced this republic by signing a compact with despotic Russia to return persons who flee that country for freedom, also by trampling the most sacred clause in our constitution by asking Europe to aid in regulating the value of our money and, by offering free coinage to gold and denying it to silver.

Dear money means cheap labor—and money contraction means credit business.

We can never prosper while 92 per cent of our business is done on credit.

If we remain free we must control our public institutions. Shall we leave thirty five billion of debt on our children? I say no! No generation has a right to entail debt on another generation.

The republican party that tried to free the negros should now try to free the white slaves.

Judge Edward charges the democrats with great sins and affects opposition to them. He forgets how he joined Cuney and the coons at Fort Worth in their battle for democracy and against the people.

Judge Edward in reply said: I am ashamed of the Fort Worth Cuney business and I dont think you ought to tell it o me any more than once in the same crowd.

To a democrat, finance is a stumbling block and to a populist foolishness.

Democracy lives on ignorance, poverty and discontent. An old run down clock is right twice each day but a democrat never. You populists climb up and lean over the the moon and shoot at the stars, and theorize and talk about vague things beyond your ken. You should stay on earth and look around you at the corruption in Texas.

Did you know! Oh! I know you democrats don't know anything—Excuse me, I have contracted the habit of asking people if they know and when I come among democrats I forget myself, and ask them the same thing—but I will tell you anyway. Democrats in Texas have squandered 30 million acres of public land—thus cheating our people out of 300 thousand homes of 100 acres each. Through perjury and corruption our school fund is being fraudulently distributed each year. See here, the eastern counties pulls the wool over the west. Anderson county pays into the school fund $8000, and takes out $25000. Smith county pays $11000 and gets $35000. Upshur county pays $3000 and gets $13000. Then, again, see here how the state is cheated in rendering money on land. Dallas county has 7 times more population than has Gonzales county, yet Gonzales renders 5 times as much cash as Dallas. Dallas banks show capital and deposits of about 6 million dollars, yet the whole county renders only about 77 thousand dollars. Tarrant has about 4 million and renders about 28 thousand. Your banks show about 560,000 and you render 187,000. Oh, you are rotten to the core and your dense ignorance is the cause We republicans have always favored public education, and the republican spelling book has split democracy in Texas.

Mr. Farmer replied by asking, if your spelling book had split democracy in Texas, then tell us what book split republicanism in Kansas and in four other republican states?

Oh! Says the judge, intelligence always makes the people kick against their rascally rulers.

Thus ended one of the most interesting, pleasant and useful discussions ever heard in Collin county.

The speakers were witty and in good trim, and the large audience of ladies and gentlemen swayed with merriment from start to finish.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescriced local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. SUICIDE AND A RUINED HOME.

Domestic Infelicity The Cause.

Last Thursday evening Nora Brown, who lived one-half mile north of Weston, sent a bullet through her heart, from a 45 Colt's revolver. Domestic Infelicity is said to be the cause of the rash act. She was the beautiful wife of Constable Wm. Brown, of the Weston precinct and only about 25 years old. She leaves two little girls.

According to the statement of the woman's husband, there had been no trouble in the family until about six months ago, when he began to suspect, from outside information, that his wife was not true to him. On the day of the suicide he discovered some notes passing between his wife and C. F. Jeffreys, a school teacher. Brown secured the notes from a negro who was employed to exchange them between Mrs. Brown and Jeffreys. The latter was at work with a bridge gang on Honey creek not far from Weston. The purport of the note from Mrs. Brown was to the effect; that she wanted Jeffreys to come and take her away from her home as she had been ordered away by her husband. Jeffreys answered that he could not come at once and advised her to go to her father, Edwin Blackburn, at Gainesville and for her to write to him at McKinney. This seemed to unnerve the poor unfortunate woman and, according to reports, she secured her husband's revolver, placed it to her breast and fired the fatal shot that completed the awful drama. Jeffreys was arrested, charged with accessory to murder. He waived an examining trial and was placed under a $1000 bond which he readily gave. His lawyers feel confident that the charge cannot be sustained.

Later: Jeffreys was honorably released from the charge. He now has a charge of adultery against him. It will hardly be sustained.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Jonstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. M. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by R. E. Bristol.

THE DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING. A BRIEF REVIEW.

A democratic mass meeting was held at the district court room last Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. Only about twenty five or thirty participated. The call inviting all who indorse the Chicago platform, the national democratic administration and President Cleveland's latest message was read.

R. T. Seay was elected chairman, Lon Blizard, secretary and U. P. Clardy Seargeant-at-arms.

A committee, consisting of J. M. Pearson, W. N. Vernon, J. L. Davis, T. W. Wiley, F. M. Hill, J. Dysart and Jesse Shain, was appointed on resolutions and reported as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the democrats of Collin county in mass meeting assembled, on this the 26th day of August, 1893:

1. That we recognize in Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, a patriot of pure and unsullied name who has never violated a pledge or proved unfaithful to any promise to his party or to the people of the United States, and who in all his late acts and utterances has shown his perfect and unquestioned fidelity to the national democratic platform adopted at Chicago in 1892.

2. We indorse the recent message of President Cleveland to the extra session of congress as an able state document, just as the condition of the country demanded and declare the same to be in perfect accord with the national democratic platform upon which he was chosen president of the United States last November.

3. We regard President Cleveland as the chosen leader of the democratic party for four years, and that it is the duty of all true democrats in the United States to indorse and support him and his administration during said term of four years, and that the acts of pretended democrats in condemning his administration in advance cannot be regarded otherwise than as injurious to the democratic party.

4. We regard the denunciations of President Cleveland by men calling themselves democrats as a traitor to his party, and the burning of the president in effigy by the enemies of the democratic party as being acts of the same tenor and significance, and both alike tending to communism and anarchy.

5. That we are bimetallists, and as such know that no piece of metal of either gold or silver can truthfully be called a dollar unless it is intrinsically worth 100 cents; we therefore demand that the gold and silver dollar of America be of equal and exchangeable value in the markets of the world.

6. That our delegation in congress be requested to cease their opposition to the policies of the administration in its attempt to shield the country from financial wreck and ruin.

7. That as long as Grover Cleveland stands where he now stands, upon the national platform of the democratic party, we will stand by him unfalteringly.

8. That the secretary mail to Hon. Grover Cleveland a copy of the foregoing resolutions, and that The Dallas-Galveston News and the county papers be requested to publish the resolutions.

The foregoing resolutions were unanimously adopted.

R. T. SEAY, Chairman.

LON BLIZARD, Secretary.

It seems by the attendance of this meeting that the democratic party of Collin county is in a very small minority, or, to say the least, Grover Cleveland has few supporters.

Of course we do not indorse the resolutions.

The first proposition in the above resolutions is a statement in error. We deny emphatically that Cleveland is "a patriot of pure and unsullied name, who has never violated a pledge or proved unfaithful to any promise to his party or to the people of the United States." The platform of every party is at present on record favoring the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal.

The president in his late message discriminates against silver and by his silence proves himself in favor of monometallism or else he is criminally negligent in not coming to the rescue of at least three-fourths of the people of the United States, by whose majority he holds his office in trust. HE IS EITHER CRIMINALLY IN LEAGUE WITH THE MONEY CHANGERS OF THIS COUNTRY AND EUROPE, OR ELSE HE IS OVER AWED BY THEIR INFLUENCE.

In the language of the brilliant congressman, Bryan, of Nebraska: "He might as well try to find the depth of the ocean by measuring the foam on a wave as to ascertain public opinion from Wall street."

The second paragraph of the resolutions is only a reiteration of the first.

As to the third paragraph we will say that it is not the duty of democrats to indorse the president when THEY KNOW THAT HE IS VIOLATING PARTY PLEDGES and is strictly against the interest of the masses.

There may be a possibility of the fourth paragraph being correct, yet it will be hard to find a jury that will convict these humbugged victims of the Buzzards bay statesman.

We denounce the fifth paragraph as being insincere. If the president, or these gentlemen were bi-metallists they WOULD NOT FAVOR UNCONDITIONAL REPEAL OF THE SHERMAN PURCHASING CLAUSE. It is not consistent to throw away a half loaf with nothing as a substitute.

The sixth paragraph is not supported by facts. The president may or may not be "attempting to shield the country from financial wreck and ruin." He may be either ignorant or dishonest. His opportunity for knowing the truth apparently removes the former supposition.

As to the seventh paragraph, his few supporters in Collin county are welcome to stand by him, yet we deny in behalf of the democratic party, according to the construction given us by the Horg faction of Texas, that Cleveland stands squarely on the national platform.

The gentlemen who composed the meeting should not make a mistake and send the above resolutions to Washington. The president is resting his home at Buzzard's bay until further notice.

In conclusion we wish to say there has been rather harsh criticism heaped on the Hogg faction of Texas for their opposition to the message. These gentlemen are not to be blamed. It simply shows that they are honest and true to their convictions and to their constituents. The Hogg following of Texas are solid in favor of free coinage of silver, as also are the 108,000 populists of the state. In the language of Gov. Hogg: "By getting we will have free coinage of silver."

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by R. E. Bristol.

Bazette and Waco Meetings.

[TO THE NEWS.]

COMMANCHE, Tex., Aug. 22.—Referring to the News report of the Waco meeting as it appears on column 5 of page 8 of Sunday's News, under the caption, "Talking with the masses," let me say that the address of the state alliance had nothing to do with the Waco conference. After the Bazette meeting adopted the address, Thursday night, I, as chairman of the committee, was charged with the duty of giving copies of it to the press. I put it in my grip and it remained there until Saturday morning when I took it out and handed it to a representative of the News, who kept it until after the Waco meeting had adjourned sine die. No delegate at Waco nor any one else connected with the convention, except myself, saw it there, and I only casually mentioned to two or three persons that the state alliance had declined to make any demands, but had issued a lengthy address.

The Pacific hotel meeting was solely for the purpose of considering the state organ business and no reference was made to the alliance address.

Neither Judge Nugent nor a populist conference has any business to consider an alliance address nor would they be so presumptuous as to do so.

Besides, the resolutions reported and adopted at Waco bear no resemblance or relation to the alliance address.

The alliance is not a political party but a camp of instruction—a school of political economy. Its demands were promulgated generally over the United States long before the populists organized their party. Alliance men stand on the demands of the order and if populists, democrats, or republicans adopt their demands as a political platform the alliance will still go on educating the people on the same lines it has during fourteen years past.

THOS. GAINES.

Mr. Bryan's Speech.

The conclusion of the speech of Mr. Bryan of Nebraska, on the silver question in the House last week was as follows:

"The democratic party stands to-day between two conflicting forces. On the one sids stands the corporate interests of the United States, the moneyed interests, the aggregate wealth and capital, imperious, arrogant, compassionless. They are able to subscribe magnificently to campaign funds. They are able to crush with their all powering influence any who may dare to oppose, and to those who fawn and flatter they can bring ease and plenty. These demand that the democratic party shall become the agent to execute their merciless decree. On the other side stands an unnumbered throng, those for whom the democratic party has been summoned to speak. Work-worn and dust-begrimed, they make mute appeals. This army vast, and daily vaster growing, pleads with the democratic party to be its champion in the terrible conflict. It cannot press its claim amid sounds of revelry; it cannot march phalanxes in grand parade. No gaudy banners float upon the breeze. Its battle hymn is, 'Home, Sweet Home;' its war cry, 'equality before the law.'

"Between these forces, hesitating in doubt to which side to turn, yet conscious that upon its decisions must rest the fate, stands the democratic party, and to it, standing thus, come the words of Isreal's second law-giver: 'Choose ye this day whom ye will serve.' Will the party turn its face to the rising or setting sun? It is said that Napolean ordered a retreat at the battle of Marengo, but the drummer boy replied that he did not know any retreat and begged that he be allowed to beat the charge. The charge was ordered and Marengo was added to the victories of the man of destiny. The president was elected upon a platform thrice pledged to the gold and silver coinage of the constitution. Nine-tenths of the people of the United States are ready to sustain him in the fight, but in the face of an enemy bold and insolent, he has ordered a retreat. Let him be not dismayed. There is time yet to win the battle if he will but order the charge. Will the party stand by the principles of Jefferson and Jackson or will it abandon its right to its name? Will it choose life or death—which?" [Tremendous applause.]

GREENVILLE, Hunt Co., Tex., Aug. 25.—A few evenings ago J. O. Jerrill and a neighbor, farmer south of town, had a misunderstanding and were about to use their pistols. Since then the children have not been seen and it is feared they were drowned in the river. Dilligent search is being made.

What Public Ownership Will Do.

The Brooklyn bridge is just ten years old. The cities were allowed to build it for themselves, as capitalists saw no money in it. Fifteen thousand people crossed in one day ten years ago, One hundred and fifty thousand crossed in one day last week. Its cable fare, reduced to two and one half cents, provides a revenue of half a million dollars. The bridge will last a thousand years and cost the people nothing. It is paying for itself as fast as its bonds can be redeemed. Capitalists are now ready to build two more bridges, better and more costly ones They see money in it now. The Curse of Militarism.

Our Prague correspondent says that the Bohemian deputies in the Austrian parliamentary delegations continue strongly to oppose the new military expenditure required by the war department on behalf of the triple alliance. The figures the opposition gives are significant. From 1868 to 1893 the Austrian army budget rose from 68,699,640 florins to 107,874,863 florins. During those years 2,833,000,000 florins have been expended on the army. The navy and the landwehr are not included in this vast sum. The occupation of Bosnia alone has cost the empire since 1878 245,993,500 florins.

On the other hand, nothing is incurred for works of peace. Not a mile of a navigable channel has been made. The support of primary schools, asylums, road building, etc., rests entirely on the shoulders of the provinces themselves. Other figures are no less suggestive. In the whole of Austria-Hungary there are 4,000,000 paupers and 16,000,000 persons unable to work—viz, children, old people and cripples; 9,000,000 women and hand workers earning no more than 180 florins a year; 2,000,000 workmen and servants whose yearly income does not exceed 300 florins, and only 1,681,000 persons getting from their work, trade or capital more than 300 florins. The physical and moral condition of the impoverished population is deteriorating. —London News.

Pecuniary Prospects of the Chicago Fair.

If the Columbian company will discharge its bonded indebtedness and refund to the government the amount of its donation, it will do marvelously well. Every effort of the directory ought to be exerted in that direction. Operating expenses are far in excess of reason. Struggle has been made and successfully to a certain extent in the direction of reduced expenditure on current account, but the field is still full of possibilities.

The banker's estimate of a 33 per cent return to Chicago and the shareholders, Chicago being on a footing with all shareholders, is optimistic. The estimate takes no account of the fact that it is the purpose of the Columbian Exposition company to continue expenditure after the closing of the fair. The Columbian guard have been assured that large numbers of them will remain for a year or more. The whole department of construction, reduced in number, but still an expensive outfit, will be continued. As the exposition is now managed, there will not be a penny of return for any shareholder. It is idle to make other prediction.—Chicago Times.

End of De Maupassant.

De Maupassant was very thoroughly discussed at the time he was taken insane, and now that he is dead at the age of 43 there is nothing to add save that the operation of a great natural law is completed. He was a master of condensation in literary style. His short, terse sentences are matchless, but most of his stories are earthly and doubly pernicious by reason of the masterly skill with which they are told. No man could portray such frightful dramas of passion without entering into the emotions expressed. His own soul caught every reflection, and the strain was too much for him. "A prematurely wornout nervous system" was the cause of his death.

His career was only for 12 years, but he leaves behind a mass of brilliant filth that will do harm for many decades.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Gold In Maine.

That story of gold mining on Enchanted Ponds township is not by any means the first that has been heard about gold finds in the Moose river valley. As long ago as 1850 a man named Berry claimed to have found gold in a ledge in that region in such quantities that he "chopped out pieces with his ax, which he sold to Augusta jewelers." To be sure critical persons may say this statement is only that he sold the ax to the Augusta man, not pieces of gold; but why not gold in Enchanted township as well as in Byron, where there is no doubt about it? It has long been asserted that there is gold enough in the sands of Moosehead lake to pay good wages to those who will wash them for it.—Lewiston Journal.

Max Muller Decorated.

The sultan of Turkey has conferred the Order of the Medjidieh on Professor Max Muller. This is a merited tribute to the vast oriental learning and the deep interest taken by Professor Max Muller in the various eastern religions, and in Mohammedanism in particular. The present sultan, who is a somewhat mild and melancholy oriental of conservative tendencies, has little in common with that section of the official class in Constantinople who have been educated abroad and have adopted atheistic and revolutionary sentiments and ideas. He is devotedly attached to the Mussulman faith.—London Chronicle.

Raised the Gould Assessment.

The death of Jay Gould seems to have opened the eyes of the New York tax gatherers. The assessment on his personal estate has been raised from $500,000 to $10,000,000. While Mr. Gould was alive he could "swear off" his taxable estate, after the manner of rich New Yorkers, but necessary post mortem disclosures of his wealth have made further swearing off impracticable.—Bangor Commercial.

A curious and very objectionable crank is one who has developed in Birmingham, England. He goes about with a long steel hat pin and stabs all fashionably dressed ladies whom he encounters.

Hammocks are more luxurious than ever before. In their latest form they include a canopy for keeping off the sun and a net for protection against flies, mosquitoes and gnats.

Two sisters will make their appearance in London next year. One is 8 feet high, with hands 32 inches in length, and the other is not 3 feet high and weighs 31 pounds.

Demonstration by Unemployed.

ASHLAND, Wis., Aug. 25.—At Ironwood last night 1500 unemployed gathered, making demands and threats for work or bread, and did not disperse until nearly morning. The condition of the unemployed there is terrible, several thousand being out of work. The authorities are trying to devise means of relief.

Home Rule Amendments Carried.

LONDON, Aug. 25.—This evening in the house of commons amendments to the home rule bill were carried and the third reading of that measure was announced for Wednesday next, The proceedings were quiet.

A SURE THING.

Old Cases of Malaria Need No Longer be Invalids.

There is no use trying to dodge the fact that quinine will not always cure malaria. While it is doubtless true that large doses of quinine or some other derivative of Calisaya bark will cure more cases of chills and fever than any other drug, it is equally certain that in chronic malaria it is, in a majority of cases, a flat failure. In every malarous district there are thousands of peeple who continually take quinine and yet continually have more or less frequent attacks of malaria. These facts need no argument. Every person who lives in a malarious locality knows them to be true.

A remedy capable of curing these cases of chronic malaria that quinine will not relieve would be a great blessing to humanity and produce a genuine sensation in medical circles. That is exacty what the the remedy—Pe ru na—will do, It cures all those old and stubborn cases of chronic malaria that have taken quinine perhaps for years without result. A thorough course of Pe-ru-na is sure to remove the malarial poison from the system.

A publication containing the latest information concerning the nature and origen of malarial poison and the cure of malaria in all its forms is being sent to malarial sufferers in all parts of the civilized world by the Pe ru na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus Ohio. It will be sent free to any address for a limited time.

M. Turpin's New War Machine.

M. Turpin, recently released from prison after having been unjustly convicted of selling the secret of the manufacture of his melinite, is reported to have invented a new war machine of a very deadly character. It appears that it is a very light affair, can be served by four men and drawn by two horses. It shoots four times in a quarter of an hour and each discharge throws 25,000 projectiles, which kill at 3,500 meters, scattering in every direction and covering geometrically 22,000 square meters. Ordinary commercial vessels and fishing boats can be armed with this electric machine without any important change in their equipment. It is expected to make any one of them more than a match for the greatest battleship in existence. It is claimed that the projectiles of this machine can pierce the heaviest armor as easily as a rifle ball passes through an ordinary plank.

If the machine is anything like what it is reported to be, all forts and fortifications will be rendered practically useless. They can be reduced to a heap of ruins in a few hours.

A reporter of The Temps interviewed M. Turpin the other day in regard to the machine. "The reports in the newspapers," he said, "are exact in substance, but in the way that they are put nobody can understand anything of my invention. It was during my imprisonment at Etamps that I devised the thing, but the invention is as yet only theoretical, because I have not been able to experiment with it. But at the same time I am certain of success. On the other hand, I have taken out no patent, because by doing so I would immediately throw my invention to the public, and that is precisely what I wish to avoid. In a short time I hope to be able to present myself to the ministry, and then I can exhibit my invention and make experiments. I cannot say any more about it at present."

Electricity and Steam on Railroads.

There has been a vigorous contest in the legislature of Connecticut over the provisions of the proposed general statute for the regulation of electric railway enterprises. As finally passed, the bill permits the paralleling of existing steam railroads, provided the courts can be convinced that the public interests require it in any particular case, which is perhaps the wisest disposition of the matter that could have been made. Freight may be transported under similar conditions.

Our own view of the matter is that the steam railroad companies will ultimately find it for their interest to control all the profitable and well located electric lines and will operate them on a coupon ticket system as feeders and distributors of their local passenger traffic. That this might be done in many cases, with the greatest possible advantage to all concerned, is obvious upon the most casual consideration of the matter.—Engineering Magazine.

Deaths From Diphtheria.

Nearly one-third of the 702 deaths in this city last week were the result of three diseases—pulmonary consumption, diarrhea and diphtheria. The mortality from diphtheria in proportion to the number of cases of it was very high, or 45 deaths to 119 cases. Until 40 years ago this malady was almost unknown in the United States, but it has latterly become widely prevalent and is terribly dangerous, as may be seen by the records of mortality. No effective method of treating it has yet been discovered, though men of science have striven and are striving to discover such a method. It is a contagious disease; it is epidemic. We wish that some member of the medical faculty could find the means of putting a stop to its ravages or at least reducing the number of its victims.—New York Sun.

Roses Amid Ruins.

In driving over the Maine highways you must have noticed that whenever you pass the ruins of an abandoned house or an old cellar where a house once stood there is often a big patch of cinnamon roses growing wild around the place. One does not see them often near homes that are occupied, and their frequency around the abandoned places indicates that they either were greatly in fashion in former years or else they love decay and neglect and spring into being in such places spontaneously. These rose patches are just now bright with flowers and odorous with—well, the writer asked a lady the other day what they were odorous with, and she said "memories."—Exchange.

Changing Diseases.

In that delightful book, "Ridder Grange," the husband of Pomona gives as his reason for not removing from a malarial neighborhood, that it don't do for a man at his time of life to go about changing his diseases and adding, that there are diseases incident to almost every locality, and he likes a disease he is used to.

Now, in case of malarial diseases, aside from the unwillingness of patients to "change diseases," it is generally not convenient to change their residences. If this were done in every case, some of our most thriving communities would be depopulated.

Nothing is left to do therefore but to fortify oneself against malarial influences. For this purpose Drs. Starkey & Palen's Compound Oxygen has proved itself in the past 23 years the most efficient thing in the world.

Any person desiring to change diseases for health should write to us a plain statement of their case, when, if possible, the way will be pointed out. The consultation is without charge. Address Drs Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch Street Philadelphia, San Francisco or New York, and Toronto, Ont.

Ostentatious Charity.

William C. Todd of Atkinson, N. H., is a philanthropist wise in his giving. The Boston Public Library is $50,000 richer for his generosity, and his largess is to be invested so as to secure a permanent annual income of $2,000 to be expended in maintaining a newspaper reading room in which papers from every large city in the world will be found. If it did not require a struggle to overcome the temptation to found some weak institution bearing his name instead of burying his gift in a great organization already established, Mr. Todd is a man of less than average vanity. It would be hard to find an investment in the direction of popular education likely to be more beneficial than this one. A reading room makes little show. It is influential nevertheless.—New York Tribune.

Canada's New Governor General.

Canada is to have a new governor general in the person of Lord Aberdeen, one of the most brilliant and rising of the younger statesmen of Great Britain. He will be ably seconded by Lady Aberdeen, described by The Woman's Herald of London as one of the half dozen famous women of the world—one who believes in women as an active force in politics. "We should work side by side, men and women, each endeavoring to accomplish something, and thus make the world a little better than we found it." Canada stands with maple leaves in her hands to extend the heartiest of welcomes to the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen.—Wives and Daughters.

Mayor Willard of Argentine, Mo., unstrapped his wooden leg and beat into a tractable mood a claimant who was too persistent in his attempt to collect an unjust bill from the city. It does not follow that all wooden legged men would make good mayors, but such a man as Willard, with a wooden leg, has points of advantage over a man with a wooden head—and towns east of the Rocky mountains have had that kind of mayors. —New York Commercial Advertiser.
